SUPPORTING AUSTRALIAN MADE, AUSTRALIAN GROWN

Statement by Mr Peter Anderson, Chief Executive

The Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ACCI), Australia's largest and most representative business organisation, has given full support to the promotion of Australian goods and services at the opening today of the first Australian Made, Australian Grown Concept Store at Sydney Airport by Federal Treasurer the Hon Wayne Swan MP.

"The Australian Made Concept Store in Sydney's international terminal is not only a high quality retail facility, but also a powerful statement about the quality of Australian commerce and industry."

"Treasurer Swan was right today when he said that the world is keenly interested in Australian goods and services, especially at a time when our economy is holding up in the face of the global recession."

"Our challenge is to maintain and enhance the competitiveness of Australian goods and services through wise economic management and entrepreneurship in industry."

"The Australian Made, Australian Grown campaign, with its stylised kangaroo symbol, has taken another step forward with today's store opening and visible presence at one of our country's borders."
